

SOUTH AFRICAN
Intellectual Property
Law Journal

Call for Contributions

The South African Intellectual Property Law Journal (SAIPLJ) hereby calls for submissions for publication in the 2014 issue.

Contributions on all aspects of intellectual property that have relevance to Africa, particularly South Africa, are welcome. Submissions may be in the form of articles or notes not exceeding 10 000 words and 6000 words respectively. All submissions must be of a scholarly nature and conform to the SALJ house style (available at www.jutalaw.co.za).

The journal is published by Juta & Co and is double peer-reviewed. The 2014 issue will be submitted for accreditation with the DHET.

The SAIPLJ accepts submissions on an on going basis, however, the final submission date for consideration for the 2014 issue is 30 April 2014.

Submissions and enquiries can be directed to the Editors at editoriplj@uct.ac.za

